DIRECTORATE OF RESEARCH, EXTENSION AND CONSULTANCY

Call for Peer Reviewers

In the FY 2018/2019 Laikipia University grant competition, we seek to support innovative research proposals that have the potential to enhance research innovations and development agendas. In support of this competition, we now seek individuals who can participate in review panels that will help us to select grant award winners, to provide written analysis and scoring of submitted grant applications and to provide constructive written feedback to applicants.

Who Would Be Successful Peer Reviewers of LU Grant Applications?

- If you have previously been a peer reviewer for other works elsewhere, including serving as a peer reviewer of previous LU proposals / competitions.
- A faculty member from one of the schools; Science and Applied Technology, Humanities and Development Studies, Business and Education
- Be a full time staff of the University.

Conflict of Interest

You are not eligible to be a reviewer if you will be applying to the competition, if you will be involved in the preparation of a grant application or if you would stand to benefit from an application that were to receive funding in this competition. You are eligible, however, if you are a past LU grantee and not submitting a new application under the 2018/2019 competition.

Responsibilities

- i. The reviews will take place between 25th and 28th February 2019. If you are selected, you will be contacted to confirm availability for the specific dates before 22th February 2019.
- ii. You will be expected:
 - a) To participate in a one-hour review orientation;
 - b) To read, review, and evaluate relevant applications in your area of expertise and
 - d) To complete written evaluations of applications based on the selection criteria within stipulated times.

Application

- To be considered, please send a copy of your application to rec@laikipia.ac.ke before 14th February 2019
